Publishing the list of protected monuments of Delhi

2768. SHRI AIMADUDDIN AHMED KHAN (DURRU): Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to refer to Unstarred Question 2128 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 11th March, 2003 and to state:

(a) whether despite the existence of Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Site and Remains Act, (the Protected Monuments Act), 1958 and Delhi High Court's order the Archaeological Survey of India is yet to publish the complete list of Delhi's protected monuments;

(b) whether due to lack of proper maintenance large number of 'protected' monuments in Delhi are in dilapidated condition and due to improper security arrangements large number of such 'protected' monuments are subject to encroachments;

(c) if so, the details in this regard; and

(d) the remedial measures taken by Government for the proper protection of all the monuments of Delhi?

THE MINISTER OF TOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) to (d) The ancient monuments, archaeological site and remains are declared as of national importance under the provision of Section 4 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 through an official gazette notification published in the Official Gazette of India. The Archaeological Survey of India does not require to publish any list in the press.

It is the constant endeavour of the Archaeological Survey of India to maintain its monuments in good shape. Conservation, chemical preservation and environmental development of the centrally protected monuments are taken up as per requirements on site subject to availability of man power, and financial resources.
